Cost of Gas in 1882. To the Editor of the Dispatch :

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

In the published statement of the Superintendent there appears to be a grave error. The statement purports to give the result of the operations for the fiscal year, ending 1st February, 1832. Credit is taken for the production during that period, including sales of coke, whilst the account is debited only with the disbursements which the Auditor's books show were made during the same period. The Auditor's books show only such expenses as have been actually paid. Such as have been incurred and not paid do not appear on the Auditor's books. The appropriations made by the Council for the manufacture of gas for the past fiscal year amounted to the sum of $137,000. Papers in the Auditor's office from the Cormiltee on Light show that the entire appropriation had been expended on the gas manufactured prior to 1st of January last; so that in the published January last; so that in the published statement credit is taken for twelve to thirteen millions feet of gas munufactured thirteen millions feet of gas munufactured in the month of January, 1883, at $2 per thousand, the cost of which does not appear to the debit of the account, but must be paid out of the present year's appropriation. There is also an item for meters sold credited improperly. The meters when bought were paid for out of the appropriation for construction, and receipts from that source should go to the credit of that second.

from that source should go to the that account.

The Auditor is required by ordinance to prepare at the end of each fiscal year accounts showing "the net balance of the year's income after charging the gas-works with all expenditures on account of them, and with interest on all moneys expended for construction and extension, these accounts to be furnished to the Committee counts to be furnished to the Committee on Light and by them examined and pre-sented to the Council." Would it not be wiser to await this statement, carefully prewiser to await this statement, carefully pre-pared and approved by the committee, and avoid the errors we are hable to fall into by the publication of hastily-prepared tables? We all want cheaper gas, but let us see that we obtain it by cheapening the cost of manufacture, and not by simply transferring the burden from the gas-consumer to the tax-payer.
